

Serious Business Game for more creativity

Learn the key skills to think "out-of-the-box".

Create a larger solution scope and improve your creativity techniques.

In a time of digital transformation, of transition with high dynamics - how can we generate new ideas in teams in an even better and more structured way and get the power on track as fast as possible?

Gamification Storyline:

IDEA is a serious business game about creativity techniques.

In this serious business game, participants take on the role of Vivian. She is an excellent cook and has been invited to be "Megachef" for this year's championship in the USA.

As a contestant in the reality cooking show Megachef, Vivian has to solve creative tasks several times in order to make a lasting impression on the jury. She is supported by her mother, a creative toy developer. In the competition, it is always necessary to create new culinary dishes under challenging conditions and limited resources. As a participant, you will learn various creativity techniques in numerous exercises in order to increase your solution capacity.

Help Vivian emerge victorious from the show as you learn new solution strategies and methodical approaches along the way.

Start your creativity adventure and expand your solution capacities!
